

Notes on contributors

DR VICTOR S. ALUMONA is a lecturer at Department of Philosophy Obafemi Awolowo University, Ile – Ife Nigeria. His research area of interest is in sophistic skepticism on which he also wrote his Phd thesis. He has published “Protagoras’ Homo mensura Dictum and the possibility of Rhetoric” in Philosophical Transactions and “Gorgias’ skepticism regarding Social Class Distinctions in the Epitaphios” in Journal of Humanities which is abstracted on AJOL. He is also interested in Rhetorical theory and its interface with thought expression and knowledge forms both in western and non western thought.

onuegbe2002@yahoo.com

uriagu@lycos.com

DR PIETER BOELE VAN HENSBROEK is teaching in Political Philosophy at the University of Groningen, the Netherlands, and is research coordinator at the Centre for Development Studies at same university (see see: www.rug.nl/cds ). He taught for three years at the University of Zambia and was co-founder, and for fifteen years (co-)Editor, of the journal QUEST. His publications include the book Political Discourses in African Thought: 1860 to the Present (1999). He is a member of the Advisory Editorial Board of QUEST.

p.boele@rug.nl

DR. GERALD CIPRIANI is a Senior Lecturer in Philosophy of Art on a number of post-graduate courses at the University of Central England in Birmingham (United Kingdom). His research interest is in the relationship between philosophy and art, and in contemporary continental philosophies of art including hermeneutic phenomenology and post-structuralism. He is currently working on the philosophy of Gabriel Marcel and its relevance to art. He has published a number of articles in his specialist field nationally and internationally, of which the most recent include: ‘The Deconstructing Deconstructed Subject: Postmodern Ethos or Incarnate Fidelity?’ (Filozofska Istrazivanja, Zagreb, 2002); ‘Reflections on the Nature of the Figural in Art’ (Philosophical Review, Taipei, 2001), ‘Art, Theory and Experience’ (Philosophical Enquiry, Thessaloniki, 2000), ‘Art, Space and Time’ (Disciplines, Fields and Change in Art Education, 1999), ‘Meaning in Form’ (Ideas y Valores, Bogotá, 1999).

gerald.cipriani@lineone.net

DR RENÉ DEVISCH is special Emeritus Professor of anthropology in Louvain University, Belgium. He has been a major force in shaping that institution into the main centre of African Studies in that country, and beyond. He published widely on the ethnography of Congo (especially the Yaka, and Kinshasa); African religion, witchcraft and art; psychoanalysis; medical anthropology; and dream. His most recent work concentrates on the dynamics of indigenous knowledge.

Notes on contributors

rene.devisch@ant.kuleuven.be

DR IDOWU WILLIAM is a lecturer in Philosophy, Obafemi Awolowo University, Ile-Ife, Nigeria. His research interests are in the areas of citizenship studies, African legal and political institutions, African jurisprudence, and gender studies. He has been privileged to attend many academic and scholarly conferences within and outside Nigeria. He has published articles and papers in journals both at home and abroad. Presently, the author is working on a project on the nature and significance of African jurisprudence.

idwilly@yahoo.com

DR LANSANA KEITA is Professor of African philosophy at Lansana Keita (Fourah Bay College, Sierra Leone), and Associate Professor at the Bureau of Applied Research in Anthropology (BARA), University of Arizona. He is a member of the Advisory Editorial Board of QUEST.

LKeita1061@aol.com

REV. FR. JEAN-LUC MALANGO KITUNGANO S.J. was born in Bukavu in 1978. After graduating in Political Analysis, University of Kisangani (extension of Bukavu), he read philosophy at the Faculté jésuite de philosophie, St Pierre Canisius, Kimwenza, Kinshasa, Democratic Republic of Congo. He is co-editor of the revue Raison ardente, published by the latter institution.

malango@jesuits.net

MME. JULIE DURAN-NDAYA TSHITEKU a étudié la philologie romane à l'université de Lubumbashi. Elle est licenciée en travail social (option minorité culturelle) à l'institut de sociologie de l'université Libre de Bruxelles. Elle fut représentante pour les grands lacs (Congo, Ruanda et Burundi) de l'Union Catholique Internationale des services de développement social. Elle est la fondatrice et fut la directrice du centre de recherche CERDES au Congo Kinshasa. Elle a travaillé comme consultante auprès des organisations de coopération au développement aux Pays-Bas. Membre associée du Centre d'Etudes Africaines à Leiden, elle défendra bientôt sa thèse de doctorat en ethnologie devant l'Université Erasme à Rotterdam, Pays Bas. Elle est mère.

ndaya@ascleiden.nl

DR FREDERICK OCHIENG'-ODHIAMBO is a senior lecturer in Philosophy at the Department of History and Philosophy, University of the West Indies, Cave Hill Campus, Barbados. He previously taught Philosophy at the University of Nairobi, Kenya and at the National University of Lesotho. His main research interest is in the area of African Philosophy where he has published a text titled African Philosophy: An Introduction (1995; revised edition 1997) and several articles in international journals. He has also published articles in the areas of Social Political Philosophy and Applied Ethics, and has a special interest in the study of Logic.

fochieng@uwichill.edu.bb

DR SANYA OSHA is currently affiliated with the Centre for Civil Society, University of KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa. His book, Kwasi Wiredu and Beyond: The Text, Writing and Thought in Africa was published in 2005. He was co-editor of Truth in Politics: Rhetorical Approaches to Democratic Deliberation in Africa and beyond (with Salazar and van Binsbergen, 2004; QUEST vol. XVI). He is a member of the QUEST Editorial Team.

babaosha@yahoo.com

DR WIM VAN BINSBERGEN (1947) is Professor of the Foundations of Intercultural Philosophy, Philosophical Faculty, Erasmus University Rotterdam, and Senior Researcher at the African Studies Centre, Leiden, the Netherlands. He taught at the universities of Zambia, Leiden, Manchester, Berlin (FU), Amsterdam (VU), and Durban-Westville. His recent work includes Modernity on a Shoestring (with Fardon and van Dijk, 1999); Intercultural Encounters: African and Anthropological Lessons towards a Philosophy of Interculturality (2003); Situating Globality: African Agency in the Appropriation of Global Culture (with van Dijk, 2003); Truth in Politics: Rhetorical Approaches to Democratic Deliberation in Africa and beyond (with Salazar and Osha, 2004; QUEST vol. XVI); and an extensive study of Valentin Mudimbe, Journal of African Cultural Studies (2005). In press is Commodification : Things, agency and identities (with Peter Geschiere). He is Editor of QUEST, and a published poet. Most of his recent work is available from: <http://www.shikanda.net> .

binsbergen@ascleiden.nl